The first day of Freshman classes provide a preview of four years of academic struggle and social activity that may conclude in that ultimate goal of graduation. Basic Studies provide a certain amount of frustration as the first two years grind tediously by. Fortunately, after completion of stated requirements, one delves into a chosen field of study that results in excitement and positive reward. Social life at Madison often interferes with academic endeavor. Too often a fraternity or campus programming presents an activity one just cannot skip even though that term paper due date draws nearer. Of course a balance is established and four years of frolic, fun and STUDY fade into the shadows of the past. When it is all over we may or may not see how we have changed our views, our attitudes, perhaps even our personality, but we may catch a glimpse of the people that used to be when we look back and remember all that happened, starting with that first day when . . .

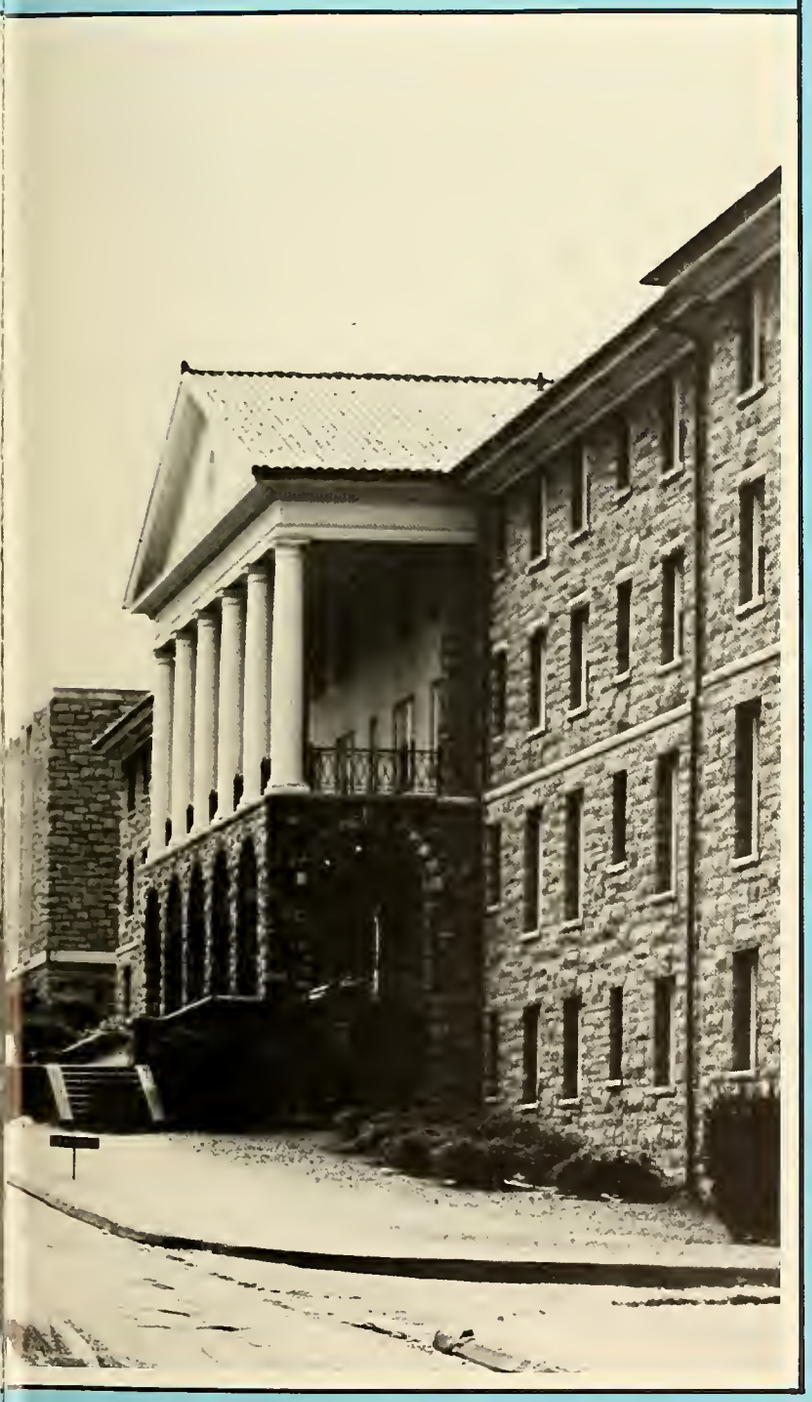
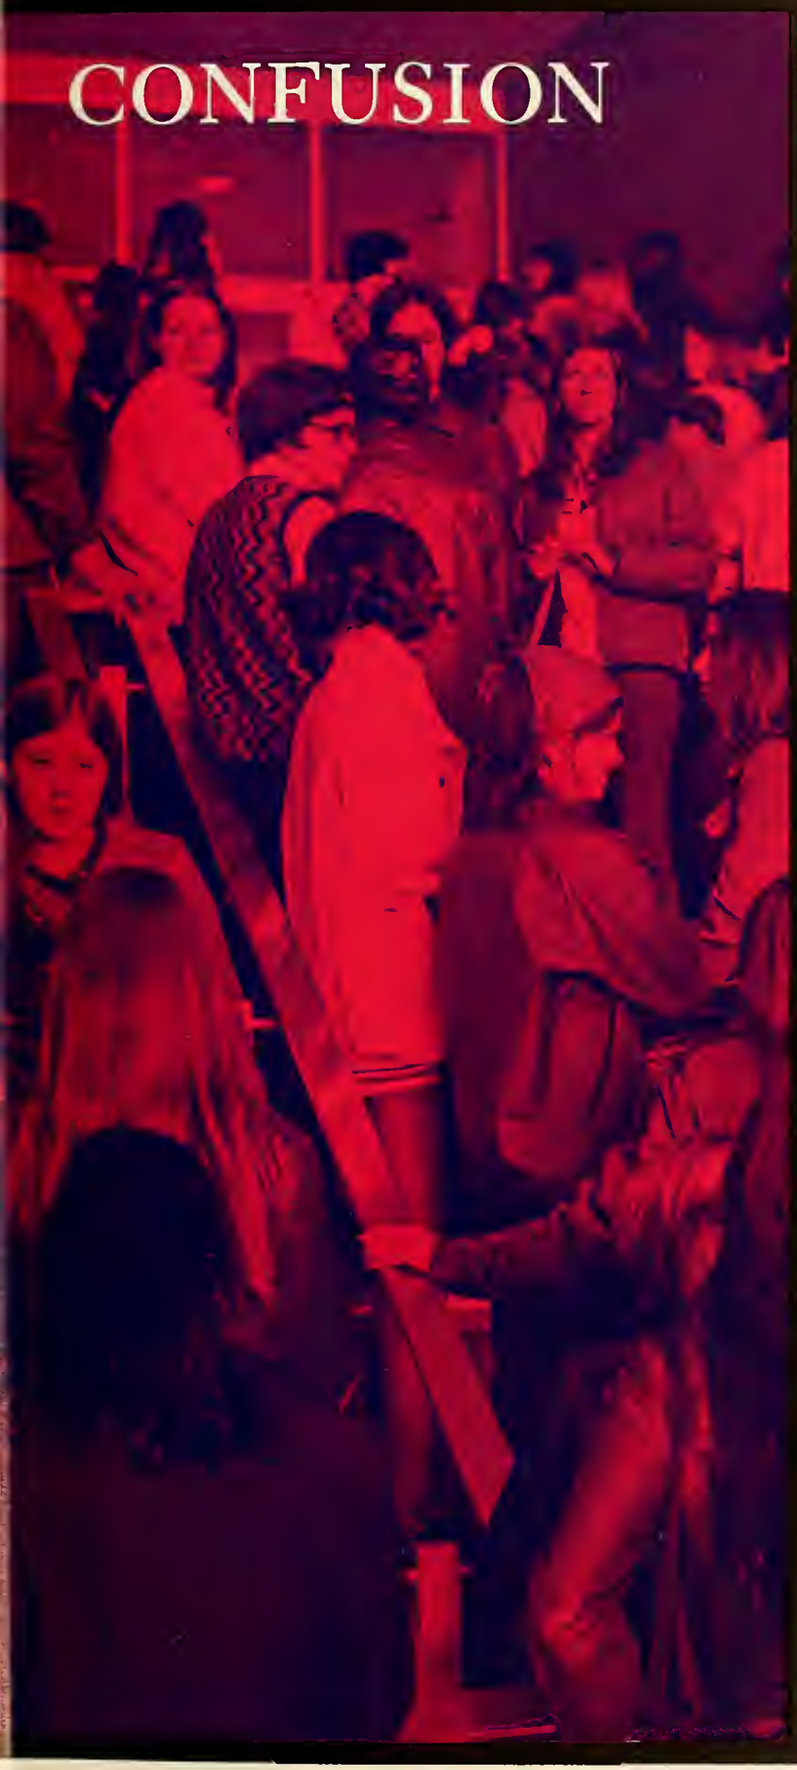
. . . WE ENTERED THE WORLD OF . . .

MADISON



It all starts with a mad rush of . . .

CONFUSION



Orientation helps but leaves one at a loss when scheduling classes, pulling cards or comprehending what is meant by "that class is closed." There is so much to remember — your P.O. number, your D. Hall number, your room number, your course numbers, your classroom numbers, your student number, your phone number and her phone number. You think nothing could be as bad as these first few days.

. . . "I've registered, bought my books, met some of my professors . . ."

. . . "I really don't mind it here but I've got to do something about my roommate . . ."

. . . "Yeah, the first night I went out with this guy who wasn't too great but last night . . ."

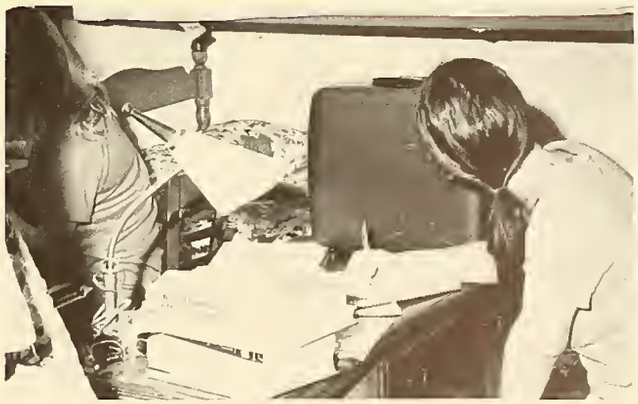
"WELL THAT'S NICE DEAR, BUT DON'T FORGET TO STUDY."

The Street

There are times when mom's reminder of "why you came to college" fades from mind. Just so much intellectual growth can be tolerated at one time.

Some of that time after class and on weekends must be spent in the pursuit of one's social development.

Then there are times when cramming often finds its way into most student's lives in spite of discouragement by professors, and the dreaded thought of missed meals and staying up all night.



When classes put on pressure and those tests, papers, and reports just get to be a little too much a student thinks of original ways to let off steam. In bygone years one might have swallowed a goldfish but now one enjoys a beer blast, starts a water fight, or just relaxes a while in the Warren Campus Center. Naturally, the scheduled activities of movies, mixers, and concerts alleviate some emotional tension but the spontaneous activities of students are the most enjoyable.

Routine walks to and from classes or to the student union are enhanced by the beauty of natural seasonal changes as the academic year progresses. Whether winter months, fall, the hours, spring months, with the lovely summer months warm everything, or fall months being autumn months are unique. The campus provides sound experience for the aesthetic and mundane alike.

The seasons change, the years pass by, the people leave, but throughout the years the goals and purpose of higher education remain the same.

Interpersonal relations on this college campus are promoted and enlarged through classes, dormitories, campus activities, and other social organizations. Friends are made everyday and always with people interested in the same topics as oneself. Naturally the environment is conducive to friendship, understanding, and brotherhood because one's total associations are with one's peer group. As a year passes bonds of love and friendship strengthen between fellow students, roomates, instructors, and administrators.

Because Madison remains a relatively small institution the various individuals involved in its education program are given personal care in most classes. Even when strolling across campus one sees many friends and familiar faces.

Love relationships develop and flourish as both partners can totally understand and interact with each other. On the sports field, whether intramural or intercolligate, a competitive spirit increases the awareness of brotherhood and the feeling of belonging that often makes seniors slightly sad upon graduation.

We met on a trail
of human life
with paths leading east or west and some that come to the end of a mountain . . .
But . . . we met.
We climbed the uninhibited road of togetherness we salvaged many a boat of pride
. . but still we laughed together . . .
Because we all met.
We sailed upon the sea of dreams and lingered in the never-never land of hope . . . but still we chose one another when we met.
The seas are dried, the mountains have crumbled to dust
the trails no longer point but still we chose,
and laughed . . .
simply because we met.

Some students display special talents in many areas unrelated to studies while other students excel in academic endeavors. Those students who earn an honorary award become the ideal products of higher education and consequently receive the encouragement of both faculty and peers. Honorary students bring pride and prestige to the entire college community. Of course the friends, family, and tutors of exceptionally high achievers also deserve credit for aiding high performance. Those students who receive honorable mention in this section of the BLUESTONE have displayed qualities either approximating the ideal product of higher education or the exacting demands of social acceptance.

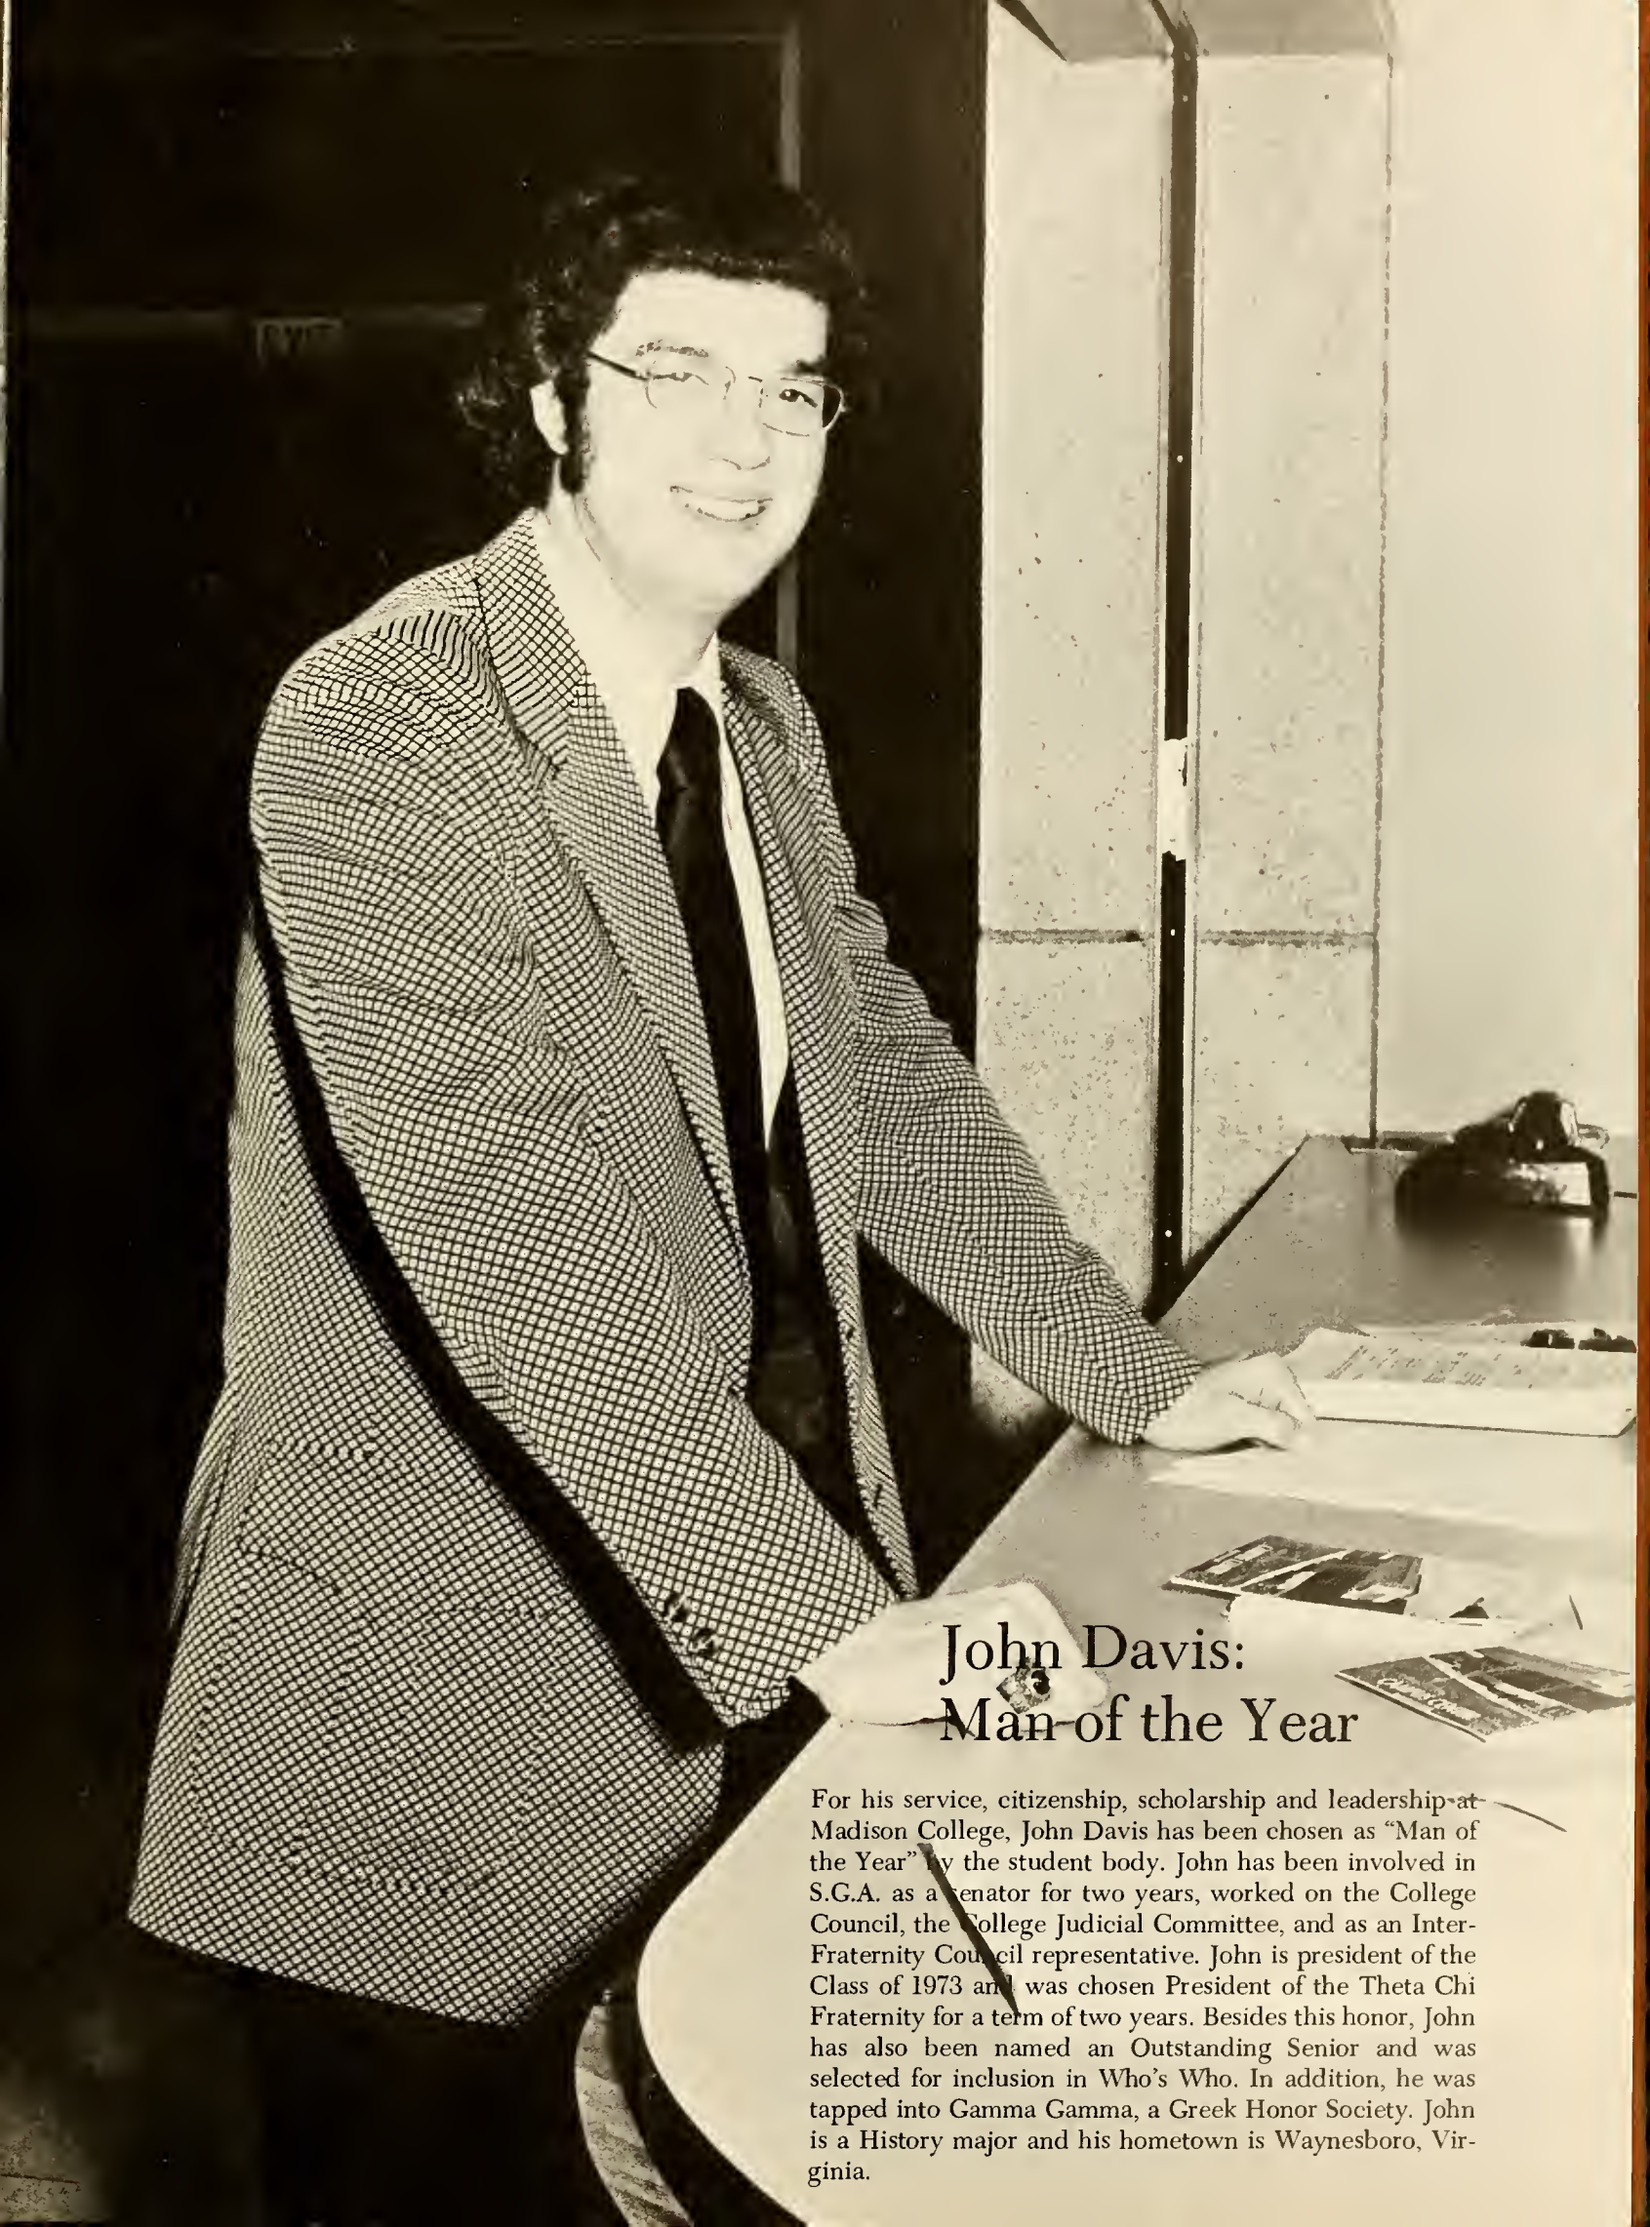
Miss Madison

Susan Rogers was chosen "Miss Madison" on the basis of personality, service, responsibility, scholarship and citizenship displayed by her during her four years at Madison. Besides being voted Outstanding Freshman, Sophomore and Junior, Susan was selected as one of the sixteen Madison Seniors to be featured in Who's Who this year. Susan is President of Alpha Sigma Alpha, served as Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Campus Program Board, S.G.A. Senator, served on the Commission on Student Services, the President's College Council, and the McGovern-Shriver Coordinating Committee for Madison College. Susan is a Social Work major from Durham, North Carolina.



John Davis: Man of the Year

For his service, citizenship, scholarship and leadership at Madison College, John Davis has been chosen as "Man of the Year" by the student body. John has been involved in S.G.A. as a senator for two years, worked on the College Council, the College Judicial Committee, and as an Inter-Fraternity Council representative. John is president of the Class of 1973 and was chosen President of the Theta Chi Fraternity for a term of two years. Besides this honor, John has also been named an Outstanding Senior and was selected for inclusion in Who's Who. In addition, he was tapped into Gamma Gamma, a Greek Honor Society. John is a History major and his hometown is Waynesboro, Virginia.

Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities; 16 Madison Seniors, That's Who!

Peggy Gillette and Joanne Cummins

Bob Walton

Gary Hancock

Elena Xynisteri

Each year, Who's Who recognizes outstanding achievement of college seniors in over 1000 institutions of higher learning in the United States. This time, sixteen Madison students attained this honor.

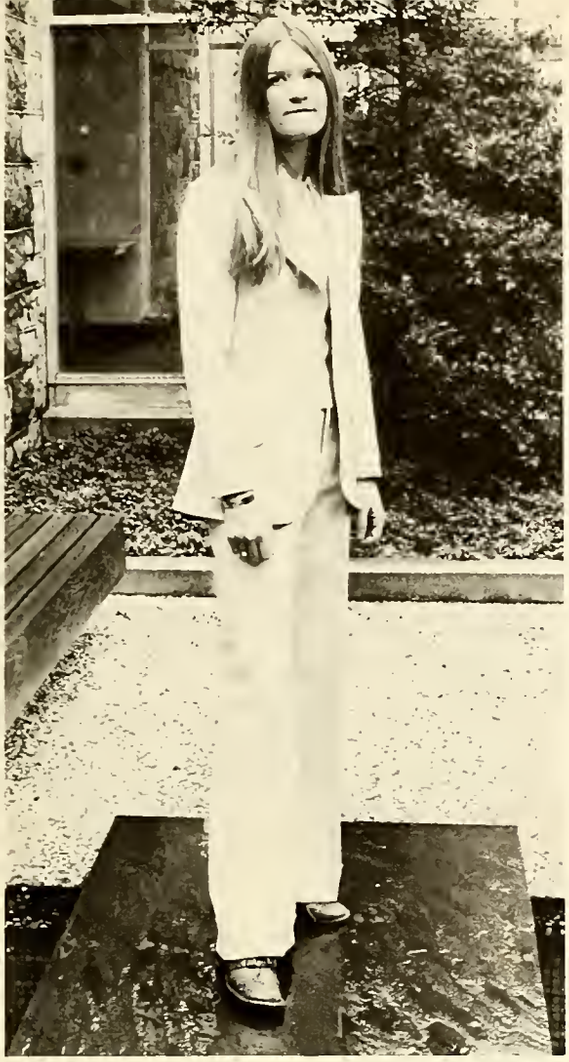
Peggy Gillette is an Elementary Education major and she has been active in the Freshman and Sophomore skit committees, the tennis team, and class affairs. She was Junior class vice-president and was voted an outstanding Junior. Peggy is also a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority, the Student Education Association, and the Constitution Review Committee.

Joanne Cummins is in Home Economics Education and has served as an S.G.A. representative, dorm president, on the Inter-dorm Council, the ad hoc Committee on Faculty Evaluation, and the graduation speaker Committee. She is also a member of the Frances Sale Home Economics Club and the Junior Marshals.

Gary Hancock has been very active, serving as Junior class president, Senior class Treasurer, S.G.A. Senator, President of the Social Science Society and in the Model U.N. Gary's major is Political Science and he plans to go on to law school. He is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Science Society and the Vice-president of Young Democrats, among other activities.

Elena Xynisteri is a Business Administration, Managing and Marketing major and has participated in the Spanish Club, and various facets of Student Government. In this latter area, she has served as Legislative Secretary, Legislative Vice-president, the Commission on Student Services, and the Commission on undergraduate studies. Elena is listed in the National Student Register and is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority.

Bob Walton transferred to Madison from Miami State University but lost no time in getting involved in student affairs here. He is a Business Administration major and is a member of the Men's Swim Team. His major duty and largest contribution has been in the role of S.G.A. treasurer.



Nancy Gorry

Nancy Gorry is a Health and Physical Education major from Falls Church, Virginia. She was Vice-President for both the Junior and Senior classes, and has done quite a bit of work on class weekends in skits, dances, banquets and publicity. Nancy is a member of the Women's Recreation Association, the Mercury Club, and has been an active participant in Volleyball, Basketball, Softball and Tennis intra-murals. She is a Theta Chi little sister, an outstanding Junior and Senior, and was named "top pledge" when she joined Alpha Sigma Tau sorority. Nancy has played on the Women's Inter-Collegiate Lacrosse Team and Basketball Team.

John Davis served as co-editor of the Student Handbook, President of Theta Chi for two years, and as Senior Class President. Other activities include S.G.A. senate, membership in the Slavic Club, membership in Gamma Gamma, a Greek Honor Society, and participation in various intra-mural sports activities.

Dennis Pluchinsky, from Cranford, New Jersey, is a major in Sino-Soviet Relations. Over the Christmas holiday, Dennis went to Russia with a group of Madison students and students from other colleges, for a three week study-tour. While there, Dennis looked up the wife of Andrei Alekseyevich Amaluk. Her husband, who is a man who believes in freedom to express his anti-Soviet opinions, has written articles which have landed him in Siberian prisons for several years. Dennis brought back the story of his conversation with Mrs. Amaluk and published it in the Breeze. Dennis was President of the China Watchers Club in 1971, a member of the Slavic Club, Young Democrats, Harambee, Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, and a member of the China Committee of Council on International Relations/United Nations Association.

John Davis

Dennis Pluchinsky

Gail Rennie

Fred Naeher

A Home-Economics major from Richmond, Virginia, Gail Rennie has been active in the Frances Sale Club and as an S.G.A. senator. She was president of her dormitory and was Chairman of the Orientation Committee while in S.G.A. Gail is a Phi Mu and has served her sorority as Pledge Director.

Fred Naeher's hometown is Falls Church, Virginia, and his major is Psychology. He transferred to Madison in his Junior year and has served a Judicial Vice-President of S.G.A. He is also a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Jon Irby, from Chesapeake, Virginia, has a double major in Special Education (Mental Retardation), and Elementary Education. He has been quite active in Stratford Players, performing in eight theatrical productions. Jon has membership in the Council for Exceptional Children and three Education Associations. He has worked on dormitory councils every year and has been a representative to Honor Council for three years and was also involved with S.G.A. as a senator and a member of the Constitutional Revisions Committee. Jon has worked on the Executive Council for the Freshman and Sophomore classes and has also been in the Madison College Chorale.

Susan Rogers, from Durham, North Carolina, majoring in Social Work, was chosen "Miss Madison" for 1973. She has been voted as outstanding for her Freshman, Sophomore and Senior years. Her activities have included the President's College Council, service to the class of 1973 and work on the Campus Program Board, on which she served as Vice-Chairman and Chairman. Last year she was elected and served as President of her sorority, Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Jon Irby

Susan Rogers

Lori Spiro Yattaw

Lori Spiro Yattaw is from Woodbridge, Virginia and has a double major in Elementary Education and Library Science. She has been active on the Campus Program Board, serving as both Chairman and Vice-Chairman at different times. She was President of the Sophomore class, Chairman of the 1973 Ring Committee, and was voted an Outstanding Sophomore and Junior. Lori has served also as her Freshman class' Historian-Reporter, and on the President's Accredation and Inaugural Committees.

From Boykins, Virginia, Fran Premaza is a Math major and has served on Honor Council since she came to Madison. She is President of that organization this year. Her other activities include the Math Club, membership in Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority, the Newman Club and the College Council. She was voted an outstanding Junior and Senior, and was also the recipient of the Citizenship Scholarship.

Dede McLane is from Cucamonga, California and is majoring in Early Childhood Education. She has been active on the Advisory Board for Education, the Interdormitory Council, Action Line, the Communications Committee, and the Criterion Club, of which she is the President this year. Publications she has worked on have included the College's Student Handbook, the Bluesteon, and the literary magazine, Chrysalis.

Morgan Sincock, commonly known as "Butch", is a social work major. He and his wife are currently residents of Rockingham County. Butch has served on the Judicial Council and was Judicial Advisor to S.G.A. He was a member of the extra-curricular sub-committee of the Purpose Committee, served as President of the Interfraternity Council, was President and Vice-President of Phi Kappa Beta (now Alpha Chi Rho), and has contributed articles to both the Breeze and the Fixer. Butch belongs to the National Federation of Student Social Workers and assisted the Harrisonburg-Rockingham Veterans for McGovern during the Presidential Campaign.

Panhellenic and the Inter-Fraternity Council Honor Outstanding Greeks

The Greek organizations on campus are composed of several hundred students, functioning both as social groups and contributors to the welfare of others in the community, the state and the nation. To honor those individuals who have demonstrated qualities of leadership and the willingness to work hard for Greek activities and the promotion of Greek spirit at Madison, Panhellenic and I.F.C. voted for the following persons: Larry Journell, Bill Leonard, John Knupp, Monica Albertolli, Patti Peach and Laura McGinty.

Larry is a tranfer student who came to Madison a year ago. He pledged Tau Sigma Chi and is now the President of the fraternity. Larry is a member of I.F.C. and is a Vietnam veteran.

Bill Leonard, president of Theta Chi, has been very active in I.F.C. He served as a representative, the administrative Vice-President, and the Finance Committee Chairman. Bill was a member of Alpha Phi Omega and served as Parliamentarian, Sargeant-at-Arms, and Treasurer.

Larry Journell

Laura McGinty

Bill Leonard

Monica Albertolli

Monica Albertolli is the Chairman of Panhellenic and also a member of Gamma Gamma, the Greek Honor Society. As Chairman, Monica must see to it that Sorority Rush is conducted legally and fairly, that the various committee are organized and carry out their duties, and that Greek Spirit is promoted. Monica is a member of Kappa Delta.

John Knupp, president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, took charge of the Rush Committee for I.F.C. He has participated in the Greek Sing and is the Chairman of the SPE movie Committee.

Patti Peach, a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, has been active as the Social Chairman this year for Panhellenic. This position involves taking charge of organizing a float for the Homecoming parade, Greek Week activities, the Greek Dinner Dance, and the Christmas party for welfare children. Patti is also a little sister of Theta Chi.

Laura McGinty is the President of Alpha Sigma Tau and a member of Gamma Gamma. She was Social Chairman for Panhellenic last year and was in charge of the Christmas Dance and in encouraging more cooperation and joint projects between sororities and fraternities.

Dr. David Watkins: Outstanding Professor of 1972

When Dr. David Watkins was informed that he had been chosen by Madison College students as the most outstanding faculty member for the year 1972, his reaction was one of mild astonishment, to say the least. To his students, Dr. Watkins is "like a best friend," and "a musician everybody envies." The degree of rapport between he and his students is a great one, and he "doesn't stay in an ivory tower but always has an open door."

Dr. Watkins has been teaching at Madison for three years now. He received his BA and MA degrees from Ohio State University. Here at Madison, Dr. Watkins teaches voice, is in charge of the College Chorale, which he has improved greatly since he took it over, is the advisor of Phi Mu Alpha, and the conductor of the Symphonic Choir.

Dr. Watkins received a bonus of $500.00 in appreciation for his concern for students and the teaching ability which, obviously, many students feel is superior. It is a pleasure to honor Dr. Watkins as the fine educator he is.

SPE Sweetheart Named Homecoming Queen

On October 20th, the candidates for Homecoming Queen waited anxiously on the stage in Wilson auditorium. During the intermission of the band concert, the final decision of the judges was made known and the new queen, Pat Phillips, was crowned and presented with a bouquet of roses from President Carrier. Pat is a sophomore and is majoring in education. She is from Mt. Jackson, Virginia, and was selected sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity this year.

Outstanding Sportsmen, 1972-1973

As a special honor to some of the finest athletes Madison College boasts, the faculty of the Physical Education Department collaborated and selected those three male students whom they felt were most qualified and deserving as being recognized as "Outstanding Sportsmen". These three are George Toliver, from King George, Virginia, Tom Riley, from Monkton, Maryland, and Al Mayer, from Islip, Long Island, New York.

George is a Social Science major with a minor in Physical Education. His activities in athletics have centered on basketball, and he has been a member of the Varsity Team all four years. For three out of these four years, George has been the captain of the team. As a Junior, he was voted the most valuable player and to All-State Basketball. As a senior, he was nominated as an Outstanding Athlete of America. George scored his one-thousandth point in basketball early in the season this year and was awarded a basketball with his name on it, in honor of this achievement.

Tom Riley is a Physical Education major and the sports he excells in are soccer and track. He serves as captain of both teams for 1973, besides being the president of the Varsity Club and a member of it for four years, Al belonged to the V.I.S.A. All Star Team in Soccer in 1971. He was chosen outstanding runner at the 1972 Virginia Small State Track Meet, and in that same year he was selected most valuable track runner.

Al Mayer is a Sociology major and is best known for his performance in soccer. He has been in All-State for three years, All-South for two years, and All-American for two years. For three years straight he has been chosen most valuable player in Soccer. Al also has participated on the Tennis Team, and he was named most valuable player for one year.

Outstanding Sportswomen, 1972-1973

Susan Redfield

The Physical Education Department, on the basis of the same criteria with which they selected the three most valuable male athletes, did likewise for the women and chose Susan Redfield, Denise McDonough and Diana Gray for this honor.

Susan is majoring in Health and Physical Education and she is from Alexandria, Virginia. She played on the Freshman Hockey Team and was a member of the Varsity Hockey Team in her Sophomore and Junior years. She also played Varsity Basketball for three years, and Second Team Lacrosse for two years. Susan is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and the Mercury Club. She considers it an honor to have been the Mercury Club Vice-President of Recreation, the Chairman of the ASA gift fund, Co-captain of the Basketball team, and a representative of Madison in Hockey: Blue Ridge I (Soph. and Jr.), Southeast II (Soph.) and Southeast I (Jr.).

Denise McDonough, from Springfield, Virginia, is a Health and Physical Education major who has been active on the hockey team, basketball team, and Lacrosse team. Denise served as captain of the Hockey team for two years and as captain of the Lacrosse team for one year.

Susan has attended three national field hockey tournaments, representing the S.E. Section, and three national Lacrosse tournaments, representing the Southern Section.

Diana Gray is also a Health and Physical Education major, from Arlington, Virginia. Her specialties are hockey, basketball and tennis and she is a member of the Mercury Club. Other activities include the Women's Recreation Association and membership in Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority. Loren Gurne: First Madison Student To Run For Harrisonburg City Council

Last year Loren Gurne, a General Social Science major, formerly from Alexandria, Virginia, did something which was a first in the history of the city. He ran for the City Council of Harrisonburg while still a Junior at Madison, which had never been attempted before by any student. Following are Loren's own remarks concerning his candidacy and campaign.

"I decided to declare myself a candidate for City Council after I came to realize that the city wasn't prepared or willing to let young people, especially college students, become involved in city affairs. I saw repeated attempts on the part of city officials, city business leaders, and "concerned" residents to deny students access to the city. This access took the form of disenfranchisement, denial to rent to students, and a general refusal to let young people have a voice in the city government.

"I ran a limited campaign. I spent only 25 dollars, or only .04% the average expenditures of the other candidates. I ran against the incumbent mayor, an incumbent city councilman, two academic doctors, a president of a big local business, and a barber. I received 12% of the votes. I mean I received a numerically smaller amount of votes cast, but 12% of the people who voted did so for me. I ran in order to expose the better qualities, that is, the productive and concerned characteristics, of young people. I wanted to make the community aware that there existed not only the radical and untypical young, but also the more common moderate and intelligent young majority.

"I had a special concern for Madison College. I wanted to show Harrisonburg that we, the students of the college, could help make the city a better place to live for all."

Loren is now a senior at Madison and he and his wife are residents and citizens of Harrisonburg.

Students Recognized For Achievement In Academics

This year it was felt that more students should be recognized in the Bluestone for the contributions and academic excellence they exhibit within their own major fields of study. Students who give a lot of themselves and their time in order to be a credit to their Department are often the "silent minority", of whom no one ever hears much about. It is for this reason that the Bluestone wishes to honor those students whom the faculty of various academic disciplines deem as deserving. Included this year are students in Music, Art, Special Education, Speech Pathology, History, Business Education, Home Economics, Foreign Language, and Speech. It is hoped that in the future, all departments will be represented.

Adrienne Temme, noted for her hard work and service in the Special Education Department.

(not pictured) Laura McGinty, in Speech Pathology, received a research assistantship, is President of Sigma Alpha Eta, and is student chairman of the Speech and Hearing Association of Va.

Joe Schultz is recognized both by the Foreign Language and History Department for his excellence in Sino-Soviet studies.

Recreation at Madison involves various clubs and organizations that sponsor activities of interest to their members and the student body in general. The purposes of clubs range from purely social reasons to service and religious reasons. The organizations that deal primarily with service projects benefit both the campus and Rockingham County while social organizations provide relaxation and extracurricular interests for the college community. Faculty members involve themselves in campus organizations in roles such as sponsors, advisors and also as members looking for social interaction in areas of special interest.

SGA

To represent Madison College students as their elected representatives, to encourage growth through self-government, to provide for the college community, to assist in the daily governing of the college, to effect change that will benefit the student body, to distribute the campus fees, to enforce social regulations, and to assume responsibility have proved to be the primary goals for SGA.

This year the SGA has made steadfast goals for itself which they have largely accomplished: providing for the maintenance of student life-styles to promote individual growth and social orientation, review of academic policies and procedures, streamlining judicial procedures with special focus on the rights of an individual, long range financial policies, voter registration, increased communications within the student body and public relations, a very successful fall orientation comprehensive program, rules review, and dorm autonomy.

Honor Council

Honor Council attempts to promote the growth of personal honor and integrity on the Madison campus. At the beginning of the semester Honor Council plays an important role in orientation by acquainting freshmen and transfer students with the honor code. This year the council was concerned primarily with a complete revision of their constitution.

Senior members: Jon Irby, Lynn Bauer, Wayne Barbour, Margaret Gaines, Joe Swadley.

Campus Program Board

Campus Program Board attempts to provide for the recreational, social, and cultural interests of everyone in the Madison College community. From Saturday night movies and several coffee houses to big concerts the social atmosphere of the campus is brought to life. With the addition of Warren Campus Center and Godwin Hall to the college, the Program Board has been able to provide for the social development of the students as the academics provide for the intellectual development of students.

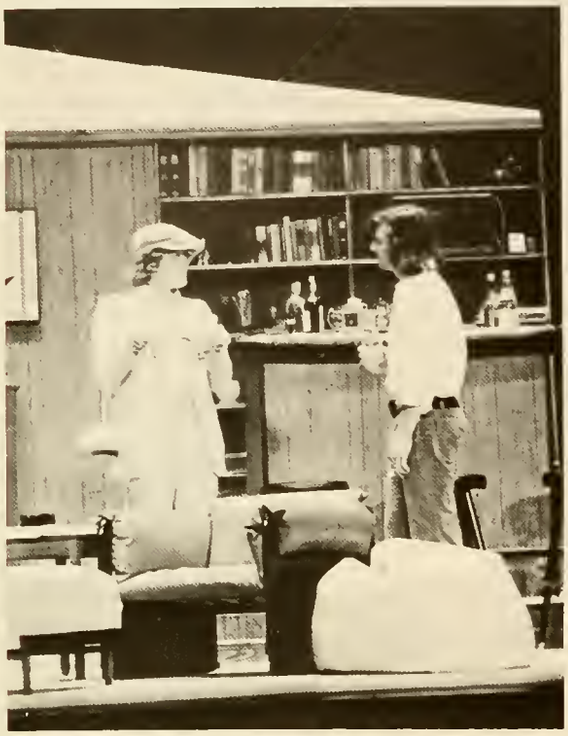
'Boys In Band' Proves Excellent

By DAVID STUART HUDSON
NRSW

A prominent, nationally-known psychoanalyst asserts that there are more homosexuals in the United States than sufferers of heart disease, arthritis or any form of mental illness.

Statistics vary on its frequency and there is still wide disagreement on its origins, manifestations and treatment, but almost no one denies that it has been wrongly deprived of careful, intelligent consideration that might lead to understanding.

This fact partially explains why Mart Crowley's play, "The Boys In The Band," opened to almost unanimous approval in 1968. Aside from its considerable artisitc merits, the play also earned plaudits for its humane and candid stance on homosexuality.



Equally compassionate and lacking in condescension is the treatment it has been given in a superb production that opened Wednesday night at Latimer-Shaeffer Auditorium under the banner of Stratford Players, Madison College's student drama organization.

Scarcely a thing has gone awry in this remarkable presentation which represents the first all-student-produced theatrical in the college's history. If "Boys" is any criteria, one can only wonder why the drama department waited so long to permit such a venture.

To have chosen a play of this non-conventional nature represents a kind of "go for broke" approach which might have been disastrous in less sensitive hards. But Director Michele Lyke and a cast which has capably met the challenge of extremely difficult material have exceeded even maximum expectations.

The play deals with a group of New York homosexuals who have gathered together for a birthday party of one of their number. Things get sticky when a "straight" friend of the host shows up and various hostilities are bared.

It is an unpatronizing picture of "gay" life, revealing more through its intramural depiction of the homosexual milieu than an external view from the standpoint of an outsider. To be sure, Crowley has capsulized his homosexual characters (including one or two stereotypes), but he manages to convey the very real conflict and anguish that marks a gay adjustment in a straight world.

In an age of supposed sexual enlightenment, it may seem unnecessary to assert that homosexuals are people, but "Boys" points up the unfortunate fact that to much of society they are little more than caricatures. Here we can take them seriously even while laughing at their foibles.

Miss Lyke can be credited for the admirably restrained characterizations of her actors. The play's one excessive character — the effeminate Emory — is extraordinarily well played by Steve Holstrum. As the bitchy party host, Jim Michael handles a long and difficult part with real skill. As his friend, Dennis Dewey gives a pleasing, thoughtful portrayal.

Tony Mines as Bernard deserves special mention, but it would be unfair to ignore the performances of Mike Holliday, Karl Hill, Al Linton, Lawrence Drumm and Archer Dipeppe.

John Whitmire's apartment set is just right in every aspect and Cephe Fahnestock and Margot Worthington have overcome some difficult lighting problems.

"Boys" represents Miss Lyke's first directorial effort, and she has demonstrated an ability that exceeds her experience. She deserves every praise for an intelligent production that could have been merely sensational.

The plays runs nightly through May 9, with the exception of Sunday.

Mercury Club

With approximately two hundred members, the Mercury Club held four meetings during the year plus a banquet in April. This organization tries to get the physical and health education major involved in his or her profession. Activities included the annual fall picnic and a master cult day.

Porpoise Club

Several new dimensions highlighted the club this year as this is the first time the group has used a pool the size of Godwin's, the first time to perform with music and underwater lights, and the first year to present two mini shows. The organization endeavors to foster interest in swimming, to practice synchronized swimming skills, and to present annual exhibitions.

Distinguished speakers this year were Wyette Durrett from the Virginia House of Delegates and Nathan Miller, representative from Harrisonburg to the Virginia House of Delegates.

Madison Dance Theatre

The Madison Dance Theatre is a performing company of men and women students who wish to pursue dance as a theatre art. The company is dedicated to presenting concerts on the Madison campus and to supporting other theatre and instructional dance opportunities for the campus and community. The Madison Dance Theatre Folk Ensemble performs dances from countries throughout the world. Emphasis is placed on learning genuine style and authentic costuming. The Madison Dance Theatre Modern Ensembles place emphasis on learning and performing modern dance technique of beginning and advanced level. Students from these ensembles learn improvisation and choreographic skills and perform in student and faculty choreography. The Madison Dance Theatre Children's Touring Company is comprised of Madison Dance Theatre members and is supported by a Madison College Faculty Mini Research Grant for the purpose of taking dance programs and classes into the elementary schools.

Council For Exceptional Chidlren

Activities such as a Halloween Party for a Special Education Class, a Christmas Party for the Sheltered Workshop, a party for the Mentally Retarded youths in the county, guest speakers in the field of Special Education each month and extensive tutoring are some of the ways C.E.C. endeavors to promote the welfare and education of exceptional children. Other aspects include coordinating the work of various groups, agencies and individuals who are engaged in or interested in the welfare and education of such children.

China Watchers

Founded in 1972, the China Watchers Club has devoted itself to the effort of bringing information concerning China to Madison College. A particularly altruistic cause of the China Watchers involved them in a book drive for Asian students. Considering the length of time the club has been in existence at Madison, it is noteworthy that Madison hosted East Asian Consortium this past year and the China Watchers were an integral part in promoting its success.

1973 Bluestone

Last year was the first year in the history of Madison College that all the yearbooks printed were picked up. In fact some seniors did not even get a copy of the publication. There were many complaints that the 1973 staff endeavored to correct in its developmental processes. In hopes to produce a better book we chose an experienced staff.

At the beginning of the year the editor, chosen by the outgoing editor, posted signs asking for interested students to attend the first staff meeting. On the basis of experience the section editors were assigned and photographers were formed into a staff. With a complete staff we marched onward against the forces of departments and clubs that did not return requested information, against negative opinions and allocation of funds by SGA and against our own failings of missed picture assignments and late coverage of events. After an advisor was found to oversee our efforts we progressed steadfastly onward through artwork, design, and data collection to meet the necessary time limits for deadlines.

In order to put the pages together the staff enjoyed long nights, forgotten tests and quizzes, and little sleep. However difficult the production sounds one must also consider the idea that for students to subject themselves to such work, they are positively reinforced by such altruistic motives as helping the school's image, doing "something" for the Alma Mater, and most important creating a book for fellow students to long remember their college days, the fabled, "good old days."

The book owes special thanks to Jim Ellis, the yearbook representative, and Hunter Publishing Company for special consideration in all matters even after the contract was signed. Also we as a staff would like to thank our advisors Miss Emslie and Mr. Logan for the assistance they graciously offered. They were both very helpful in many areas.

Christmas banquet.

In addition to the rest of the copy, pictures, and ideas expressed in this book, the Bluestone staff offers the following wishes: To the graduating students we hope you will succeed in every future endeavor as you have succeeded at Madison. To the returning students we wish that you may attain successful achievement to merit you graduation. To the faculty and administration we offer thanks and hope you may continue effectively in your special vocation. To those we have inadvertantly forgotten and to the brotherhood of man we wish peace.

Pi Gamma Mu

Improving scholarship in the social sciences, inspiring social service through an intelligent approach to current social problems and supporting and contributing to the existing organization through attendance and sociability at meetings are ideals expressed in the Pi Gamma Mu purpose. Guest speakers and field trips constitute meeting agendas and the Pi Gamma Mu award each year goes to the outstanding senior in the social sciences.

Kappa Pi

This international honorary art fraternity recognizes above average artistic ability and achievement.
Members meet once a month at the home of an art faculty member and share their interests in art on an informal basis. Both an annual picnic for the art department and the Thieves Market Christmas Sale are activities sponsored by Kappa Pi's.

Phi Beta Lambda

Business majors of today are the leaders or trainers of industry tomorrow. A main aim of the club is to stimulate active interest in the transactions of business of today in order that members may better prepare themselves vocationally.

Phi Omicron Tau

The primary goal of the home economics honor society is the promotion of scholarship among home economics students. Senior or junior home economics majors with a 3.0 accumulative average are able to become members. The theme for discussion this year in the meeting was women's liberation.

Kappa Delta Pi

One purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, not only in its members but in all who come under its influence. Another purpose is to recognize outstanding contributions to education and to encourage professional growth. Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education, seeks to maintain the highest educational standards and ideals and seeks to inspire scholarship and achievement in educational work.

Sigma Phi Lambda

Sigma Phi Lambda recently completed thirty-eight years of existence and during this period has presented its members with informative and entertaining speakers and discussions on various academic topics. The purpose of this honor society is to promote and maintain scholarship among Madison students for whom the organization provides fellowship. Activities during the year included a welcoming bonfire, a stocking stuffer party in December to make gifts for the Children's Ward at Rockingham Memorial Hospital, and initiation of new members.

Phi Mu Alpha

Encouragement and actual promotion of creativity, performance, education and research in music is the main goal of the fraternity. Throughout the year, activities include such things as programs to entertain retarded children and elderly citizens in institutions.

Through meetings, seminars, workshops, and trips the organization attempts to promote interest and activity in their field of study. Activity on campus is also a major concern of the group as they endeavor to make their organization a more integral part of the Madison social structure.

Madison College Outing Club

Members of this organization display interests in all outdoor activities including camping, caving, canoeing, and rock climbing. Madison's Outing Club also enjoys outings with outing clubs from other colleges. The outing club is a member of the Intercollegiate Outing Club Association.

Campus Gold

Campus Gold is a service organization on campus that also enjoys unique types of fun such as egg rolls. Besides other social activities, which include camping and picnics, the group works with scout groups and visits a geriatrics ward at Western State Hospital in Staunton. Pictured here are two scenes from the annual Easter Festival held on the quad.

Circle K

The Circle K Club reaches out to the campus and into the community to perform service projects which include working on homes of families on welfare, helping to prepare a boys' home, spending time with underprivileged kids, helping prisoners at a local road camp, and helping with a dinner for elderly persons. One of their larger projects was a week of activities to raise money for the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Newman Student Association

The Newman Student Association invites all interested individuals to learn and to experience aspects of Catholicism. They provide activities for Catholic youth on campus and they encourage others to join them to further the understanding of the Catholic faith.

Christian Science Organization: Mrs. George Sinichko, advisor, James Sinichko, Sheila Bish, Connie Stoneburner, Julia Dean, Kathi Meyerson.

Baptist Student Union

Saturday adoption, migrant experience, Bible study groups, Work Camp, traveling music group, mini-retreats, and weekend conferences at Eagle Eyrie are all part of the Baptist Student Union's purpose to provide an enabling community for students who are engaged in "the Christian pilgramage" — the inward-outward journey of fellowship, worship, religious education and social action. They encourage diversity in their fellowship by openly welcoming students from all backgrounds and traditions. Personal differences and variety are something they celebrate.

Lutheran Student Association

The Lutheran Student Association attempts to promote Christian fellowship among Madison students and among Virginia colleges. Activities for the year included local fall and spring retreats, a regional retreat in the spring, fall and spring picnics, and recreational meetings open to all interested students.

Lutheran Student Association officers: Don Yeakle, president; Bev Smith, vice president; and Kevin Thomsen, secretary-treasurer.

Madison Christian Fellowship

Founded in 1965 at Madison it is the Madison chapter of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. At weekly meetings their members strive to fulfill their purposes of Evangelism, Discipleship and Missions. Other activities throughout the year include socials, bible studies, prayer meetings and weekend conferences.

Yoi Dachi, Hachi Dachi, Kumite. These are the beginning commands that lead into the kata — a devistating sequence of punches, kicks, and blocks, which when perfected are potent enough to ward off the most aggressive adversary. Yet, when practiced alone, they become a graceful and precise series of flowing movements.
Karate, the art of the open hand, came to Madison College this year and was widely received by the students. Members of the club learned the philosophy of Karate as well as the physical aspects.

Karate Club

Mr. Riddle and the club's president David Schmidt receive a basic move in the first Kumite.

Pegasus

A horse show in the fall and a trail ride in the spring are just two of the activities which Pegasus members participated in this past year. The club is proud of being instrumental in establishing a Madison College Riding Team. In past years Pegasus has tried to build an interest in riding and augmented its members' equitation experiences.

Pegasus Club members include Anita Foster, Carol Koch, Kim McClinton, Valerie Messner, Candy Moore, Nancy Parsons, Mary Jo Prestridge, Martha Steeves, Kim Overstreet, Cecilia Gray, Connie Miller, Kay Padgett.

Varsity Club

"To uphold, maintain, and promote clean and wholesome athletics of the student body of Madison College," this is the purpose of the varsity club, who sponsors buses to professional soccer and basketball games as well as other activities in an effort to establish itself as one of the major clubs on Madison campus. The club is only in its fourth year at Madison.

James Madison Leadership Society

A very selective group of male juniors and seniors are chosen for membership in this honor society. This was the first year on campus but eventually the society will become part of Omicrom Delta Kappa, a national leadership society. As a leadership society the criterian for membership are very high and include the necessity of a 3.0 accumulative average and leadership in some aspect of college life. President Carrier has personally authorized this organization and its purpose to promote leadership and high achievement on campus.

Jazz Ensemble

Godwin Hall added dimensions of organization, continuity, and innovation to the Madison athletic program. With the addition of this new athletic center, students enjoy fine accommodations for various sports activities during open hours. As a training center surrounded by many sports fields, the intercollegiate teams at the college, sports and physical fitness have increased in importance to the student body.

SECTION EDITOR: Kevin Coyle

This year's Cross Country team exhibited its dedication, devotion, hard work and determination by compiling a season record of eight wins and two losses. Coach Ehlers, new to the team, managed to guide his team to fourth place in the UCAA finals and to a tie for fourth place in the State finals. What next fall holds in store is unknown but hopes are high.

Mrs. Horn's archery team reached a new high season this year. With such archers as Lisa Howard, Sue Vincke and Bob Ryder (who placed 5th at the U.S. Olympic Trials) the teams went on to score high in the ranks of the nation's best collegiate teams. At the Southeast Regional Tournament the women's team placed second along with the men's and the mixed team placed first. At the U.S. Intercollegiate Archery Tournament (Individuals) Bob Ryder managed an easy fourth place.

Captain — Sue Vincke

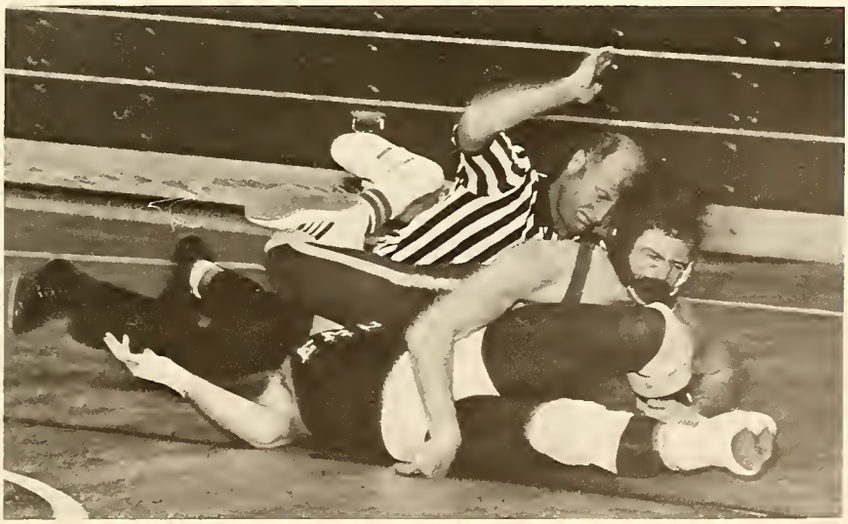
Wrestling

The new Wrestling team, under the direction of Coach Jay Clarke, managed to pull through a good season in their first year. Though it may only have been considered "fair" for most teams, for a beginning team very short on qualified wrestlers it was a good season. Wrestling in the U.C. - A.A. Tournament at the beginning of the season Madison's grapplers did not fare well but we hope to see some of our men win a few classes.



Coach Clark and friend.

Hockey Team

The Hockey team this year had a typically magnificent season. Winning nearly all of their games, the team swept up the competition and dumped them where they belonged. Though the Hockey team has consistently been the school's best team, according to their winning seasons, student support for the team has been very weak. Let us all go out to support this invaluable athletic asset to our school next year.

Golf Team

Golf in the fall season was as strong as it ever has been, very strong and a generally winning season. Under the direction of Coach Ward Long, the team had reached its highest achievements in the history of Madison College. Now, with Mr. Long deceased, it is certain that the team will never be the same.

Fencing

New coach, new team members, and new, though unofficial, gender. Madison's fencing team underwent the usual changes of our teams — men infiltrated the ranks. Even with a predominantly beginner team Miss Jean Dalton expected a winning season this year.

Dari Fritt and Jan Andreason won 5th and 6th places respectively at the AFLA novice meet which was predictable for their season.

Gymnastics

Though not yet a varsity team, the Madison College Gymnastic "Troupe" has the most rigorous practice schedule of any sport sponsored by the school. Practicing all year between 15 and 16 hours a week has really developed a strong team for competition this fall. With three shows, one televised, and one women's competition with Longwood College, Madison's team has some experience and they are optimistic of the coming season. Good luck!

Comin' Through In Seventy-Two

"Comin' through in Seventy-Two" was the motto for this year's soccer team and come through they did. With Al Mayer, Ray Laroche, Pat Baker, Mike Tesla, and Joe Erickson on the All State team and Mayer, Laroche, and Tesla on the All South, one can see the true effort that our team put out this year.

Football was a new experience here at Madison this year. The controversial team was hindered by a number of tough breaks and bad luck. Desperately short-numbered and inexperienced, the squad fought valiantly. Though Madison failed to win a game or score a point this season, high hopes are held for next year. Possibly with some "imported" talent the Dukes could compile a good season next fall.

Equestrian

Another first in sports this year for Madison was the Equestrian team coached by Mrs. Lois Geil. Formerly known as an interest group called the Pegasus Club, the more serious members joined this year's team and went into competition to win quite a large series of ribbons in numerous classes. Hopes and expectations for next year are even higher with large amount of competition experience chalked up this season.

Womens Recreation Association

Flag football for women premiered at Madison this year.

The Women's Recreation Association is the unifying body which oversees intramurals, interest groups, and varsity sports for women at Madison. The purpose of the Women's Recreation Association is to afford recreational opportunities for all students and to develop a high degree of sportsmanship, as well as an interest for participation in physical activities. The Association sponsors intramurals in basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming, tennis, bowling, golf, badminton, ping pong, bridge, soccer, and flag football.

Keep 'em rolling Miss Dalton.

M.A.A.

Through the guidance and leadership of Coach Bradley Bobcock and MAA official Jay Tigner, the Madison College Men's Athletic Association has brought sports into the lives of a great number of men in the school population. Through soccer, cross country, track and field, flag football, swimming, wrestling, and softball the MAA has been able to produce a fine combination of fun and sportsmanship throughout the campus. Although hampered by the failure of official's elections the MAA managed to produce a full schedule of events for the year.

Volleyball at Madison took a great season this year, completing their games with an 18 and 8 record and the State Tournament with a 5 and 1 victory. Playing against such teams as the U. of North Carolina and the U. of Maryland, the team had a particularly hard schedule this year yet still came out ahead.

Volleyball Team

Lacrosse Team

According to Mrs. Judy Campbell, "Lacrosse is a growing sport and is becoming more and more competitive." The 1972 Varsity Lacrosse Team ended with a 5-2 season, sending twelve players to the State Tournament. Bev Haynes, Dee McDonough, Mary Ann Gasper, and Trish Frear then traveled on to Nationals. The JV's were undefeated in the 1972 season. The 1973 season, consisting of seven games and two tournaments, began with an organizational meeting on February 12. Madison hosted the State Tournament on April 27-29 and the Great Britian-Ireland Touring Team played on April 29.

Basketball

The Dukes pour it on! Madison's 1972-73 basketball team, under the invigorating leadership of their new coach, Lou Campanelli, really went out to a winning season this year. With a twenty-three game season this year the team had a good opportunity to show its strength, sill, and endurance. With the help of assistant coach Mike Fratello, Madison came through their heaviest season compiling one of their best records. This season also saw Varsity player, George Toliver score his 1000th point for Madison College.

Track Team

Under the direction of coach McMillan this year's track team went all out and broke more records than any Madison track team before. Led by such runners as Greg Gerlach and Tom Riley the team really established an outstanding reputation for itself in '73.

Cheerleaders

This year's versatile squad of cheerleaders had some new additions; two dogs. One was a large, fiery brute with big, wild eyes, the other was a very solemn, dignified, and reserved Bulldog known now as "Duke the First". Together, "Duke" and his big friend added quite a novelty to the cheering section of Madison College.

Women's Tennis

This year's women's tennis team had an interesting season. With a new coach and old players, the team held together very well, completing a season consisting more of victories than defeats — a good way to finish a year.

The Madison men's tennis team this year had a tremendous season. Though faced with some formidable competition the experienced team encountered little difficulty in compiling another winning season. With such team members as Alan Mayer and Rich Coleman the team could not help but enjoy a victorious season.

Men's Tennis

Women's Golf

The 1973 golf team, under the direction of coach Martha O'Donnell, made the rounds this year on quite an up-swing. Having a successful season on the greens and elsewhere, the Duchesses put on a typically good show for Madison. We can only hope that next year's team will do as well.

Women's Basketball

Nancy Clark — 34, Brenda Datterer — 31, Sue Redfield — 11, Debbie Ronemus — 12, Curbie Webster — 14, Lyn Craun — 15, Jill English — 20, Betty Lewis — 30, Meredith Overstreet — 24, Patty Banick — 32, Pam Barnes — 25, Cathy Nolan — 23, Nancy Parker — 31, Teena Rash — 35, Becky Rathbun — 10, Eileen Stewart — 13, and Carrie Conally — 33.

The Madison College "Duchesses", coached by Miss Betty Jaynes, had a very good season this year, compiling a record of ten wins and two losses. Led by such talented players as Susan Redfield and Debbie Ronemus, the team had no trouble keeping up the winning tradition of the women's team. With nine returning players and nine freshmen, there was a variety of playing ability, much to the satisfaction of Miss Jaynes.

Swimming

Standing: Mgr. Marianne Anderson, Patty Fenstermaker, Laura Moore, Sandy Lindsay, Mrs. O'Donnell, Patty Turner, Susie Smith, Virginia Oxtell and Mary Jane Syzmanski. Kneeling: Martha David, Joan Kelly, Denise Wilda, Cathy McGrail, Arlene Goodspeed, and Bev Haynes. Sitting: Barbara McIntyre, Lynn Sheppard, Barbara Black, Barbara Hamlin and Peggy Hoffmaster. Not pictured: Leslie Howe, Ellen Meadows and Tula Zazanis.

Swimming at Madison this year was much enhansed by the new facilities at Godwin Hall and with new competition such as Penn State. The team was stronger than it had ever been with such swimmers as Ellen Meadows, Patty Fenstermaker and Virginia Oxtell.

The Dukes, Madison's 1973 baseball team, played a fine season this year. Coached by Mr. Bradley Babcock and led by such veterans as Larry Hunt, Ken Collins, Pete Jones, and Mel Morris, the team went up against some new competition, but nothing that they couldn't handle.

The Panhellenic Council Of

Motivation Yields Participation

The Panhellenic Council has the potential for keeping Greek Life, sororities in particular, functioniong as a vital force and influence of good on our campus. It has this opportunity by keeping students motivated to participate in their life style. This year the Open Houses showed a tremendous response to student participation. Another responsibility is keeping their members motivated to participate in campus and community activities. Panhellenic helped chairman a Cancer Prevention Study for the American Cancer Society for this county. Throughout the year, it sponsored an Xmas Party for the Saturday Adoption Children, ushered for The Stratford Players, participated in the "send a mouse to college" Cancer Drive, sold Booster Buttons for the Madison Dukes, went on "a roll" to visit the AXP in Easton, Pa. (Lafayette College). and along with I.F.C., Panhellenic participates in the annual Greek Week activities. Through all this, members learn about others as well as themselves, and thus help unify the Greek spirit on campus.

Distinct Individuals Joined In The Bond Of Sisterhood

For pep and vitality and lots of fun . . . Alpha Gamma Delta. Founded at Syracuse University on May 30, 1904, the Gamma Mu Chapter has been active on the Madison campus since 1959. Altruism plays an important role in the chapter's functions, including the traditional faculty served dinner for Easter Seals and get togethers with the children at the Bridgewater School for the Mentally Retarded. Alpha Gam is a perfect example of distinct individuals joined in the bond of sisterhood.

ASA's Fill Their Days With Satisfying Activity

1972-73 has been a busy year for the ASA's at Madison. They have participated in a variety of projects and activities. The year was kicked off by having a supper for Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternities. The ASA's then raised $400 at their annual Christmas Boutique for the Camp Virginia Jaycees in conjunction with their national philanthropic project of aiding the mentally retarded. Christmas also saw them presenting wreaths to all the other sororities on campus. All rush activities this year have also brought 20 new ASAs to Madison and these events always bring ASA and AST sororities together at "The Inn" to celebrate! The spring semester was filled with State Day, Family Weekend, Senior Breakfast, and the adoption of a girl in Appalachia. All in all, the ASAs have lived up to their creed of "filling my days with satisfying activity."

AΣT Wins National Efficiency Award

Alpha Sigma Tau is a sisterhood of working, caring, and sharing with others. Activities this year included donating money and making book binders for Pine Mountain Settlement School as our philanthropic project, sponsoring movies, having a Thanksgiving party for mentally retarded children and working with the Panhellenic Christmas Party for underprivileged children.

Alpha Sigma Tau held its Bi-annual National Convention at Virginia Beach in August with Psi Chapter winning a National Efficiency Award. Alpha Sigma Tau was also active this year in the intramural program, winning the volleyball championship.

ΔΣΤ Is Concerned With Social Welfare

Betty Toliver, DeeDee Jackson, Joyce Richeson, Barbara Coleman

Delta Sigma Theta is a national Greek-letter service sorority consisting today of over 427 chapters and 60,000 members. It was founded in 1913 at Howard University, in Washington, D.C. by a group of college women who envisioned an organization pledged to serious endeavor and community. These women demonstrated a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence, and cultural enrichment, deemphasizing the social side of sorority life. Their ideas of scholarship and service have withstood the test of time, and today the organization is committed to program activities designed to secure a better life for all Americans.

Iota Alpha Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Madison College on December 11, 1971. Since its inception, Iota Alpha has been a continuing thread of Delta's public service programs modeled around its Five Point Thrust in the areas of: (1) Educational Development (2) Economic Development (3) Community and International Development (4) Mental Health (5) Housing and Urban Development.

This year alone members of Iota Alpha have participated in monthly projects such as: a Voter Registration Drive, Donating Xmas gifts to an underprivileged family, donating supplies for an aged couple's home, coordinating our efforts with those of the Campus Program Board in implementing a Black Emphasis Week on campus, participating in the local chapter of the NAACP in order to organize meaningful programs for the city's young adults, actively involving ourselves with the campus administration in the recruitment of black students and professors, and hopefully sponsoring a Teen Lift Program.

Debbie Yantis, Carole Stone, Annette Haines, Martha Moore.

This has been a special year for the Kappa Delta sisters. October 23, 1972 marked the 75th anniversary of the founding of the sorority. "To relieve suffering among children, to replace tears with a smile —." These words have meant a great deal to the Kappa Deltas. A philanthropic Open House stressed work with the Crippled Children's Hospital, Richmond. The sisters also worked throughout the year with the Salvation Army Children.

Kappa Deltas have been active members of sports teams, honoraries, the Campus Program Board, and many other campus organizations. This summer Delta Rho will serve as a hostess for the 75th Anniversary Convention to be held in Roanoke, Virginia.

"Most Improved" National Φ M Chapter

Linda Cosby, Nancy Park, Marian Bailey, Linda Tiller, Barbara Griffith, Joyce Coombs, Gail Rennie, Carolyn Johnson.

Phi Mu made this year's social service projects outstanding when the sisters participated in a hike for the S.S. Hope that raised $2700 for our National Philanthropy. A toy chest complete with toys was presented to the children at Rockingham Memorial Hospital for Christmas, and we helped to establish a new Phi Mu colony, Gamma Pi, at V.P.I.

The second oldest fraternity in the nation, founded on March 4, 1852 in Macon, Georgia, celebrated its 120th birthday with a convention in New Orleans last summer where our chapter received the "National Social Service Award" and the second highest award, the "Most Improved Chapter." Included in our campus honors was first place at Greek Sing last May. Celeste "Cecil" Cobb is Senior Class Secretary and Gail Rennie has been selected as an outstanding contributor to college life by becoming a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Sigma Kappas Shine With Enthusiasm

The ideal of Sigma Kappa in 1972-73 was Enthusiasm. Preparations started the first week of classes and continued until October 11 for our first Open House at which we presented a little of "Sigma Kappa of the past". With our new pledges to help, the sisters then moved into their second major event of the year — Centennial Week. In anticipation of our 100th Anniversary coming up in 1974, the Sigma Kaps set aside Nov. 5-11 as a "Week of Giving". Activities during this week included a hymn sing at Sunnyside, washing car windshields and leaving a message to urge their owners to vote, taking down campaign posters on campus after Election Day, a tea for retired professors, sending notes and cards to our adopted Indian girl in New Mexico and, finally, a banquet in honor of our founders. Along with the spirit of giving, the sisters collected items to be sent to the Maine Sea Coast Mission and to the American Farm School in Selonica, Greece for Christmas. To remember our friends on campus at Christmas, our second Open House was presented on December 4th as an Old-Fashion Christmas Party. Second semester plans get under way with formal rush and spring pledges look forward to Parent's Day and State Day. Among our members are listed girls working in outside activities as well, such as, cheerleading, Propoise Club, Campus Program Board, Junior Class Executive Council, Sigma Alpha Iota and Madison Ambassadors.

Sigma "Giving, Loving and Sharing"

Robin Adair, Janice Hope, Robin Farmer, Mary Ellen Bruce, Fran Mirabella, and Mary Howell.

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."
Emerson

Once again the Tri Sigmas have had a great year, full of "giving, loving and sharing" — which is what this sorority is all about. Scholarship plays a big part, and Sigma Sigma Sigma received the Panhellenic Scholarship Award this past spring for the highest sorority average for the third consecutive year. Not only sisters to each other, the Tri Sigmas adopted a Korean orphan whom they help out with letters and financial support. In addition to this the Alpha Upsilon chapter contributes to the Robbie Page Memorial Hospital, which is their philanthropic project. The Sigmas were the first sorority to sponsor a movie on campus and "Hotel" was shown October 13. Sharing with others is very important and ZTA and Tri Sigma worked together last year to sponsor a dance with Bill Deal & the Rhondels. Pleased with 8 new pledges who "walked the purple way" last fall, the sisters were also delighted to be visited by their National Collegiate Chairman in October.

Zetas Keep Happy And Busy

This past year, our chapter has combined fun, service projects, and hard work to provide us with a fulfilling year. Last summer we sent three representatives to our national convention in Missouri. We received an Ambassador Award for colonizing and initiating two new chapters at V.P.I. and Radford.

ZTA and ΣΣΣ jointly sponsored a dance with Bill Deal and the Rhondells. It was a fantastic success. We had a bottle drive to raise money for our philanthropic project, the National Association for the Retarded Children. We also put up a Snoopy bulletin board in the children's ward at Rockingham Memorial Hospital. These activities and many more keep the Zeta Tau Alpha's happy and busy.

Alpha Phi Omega Stresses Service

Alpha Phi Omega is America's largest fraternal vice organization, and Madison's only independent fraternity. The brothers work with the Admissions Office every week by giving tours of the campus to prospective students. APO runs a weekly book lift, and helps the Campus Program Board by checking ID's at the movies. APO also helped pay for the education of a mentally handicapped child at the Staunton Rehabilitation Center. In addition to the many service projects, the brothers of APO also keep busy with social activities, such as mixers and parties at the campus farm.

The Phi Kappa Beta Chapter
Of Alpha Chi Rho

Madison College
1973

The brothers of Phi Kappa Beta were officially installed as members of Alpha Chi Rho on May 6, 1972 and maintained their original three letter name as their chapter name. Beside their affiliation with a national fraternity, growth and stabilization have been their goals this year. I.F.C., intramural sports, social and service functions are all a part of the overall social education that they provide. Alpha Chi Rho tries to vary their social life because a strong belief exists that strong fraternities play an important role in building coeducation at Madison.

Theta Chi — Always A Part Of The Madison Scene

Bill Leonard, Gene Peterson, Wayne Barbour, Jim Shackelford, John Meeks, Rick Sauer, Jim Guthrie.

The Eta Kappa Chapter of Theta Chi Fraternity has worked as an integral part of Madison's Greek System during the 1972-73 school year. In addition to rushing and pledging new brothers or carrying on service projects, Theta Chi threw several great parties, the biggest and best being Chi's Annual Halloween Party.

Whether it be Social, Service or the Sports life at Madison, Theta Chi is always a part of the Madison scene, growing and changing with the campus.

Joins S.E.I.F.C.

The I.F.C. of 1972-73 devoted most of its efforts towards developing cooperation and friendly competition. I.F.C. meetings were characterized by open discussion of general problems faced by all fraternities.

The I.F.C. joined the S.E.I.F.C. and sent representatives to the S.E.I.F.C. convention held in Atlanta, Georgia in February.

By springtime, two new fraternities, Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Pi, were established with the aid of the I.F.C. and the efforts of the new I.F.C. advisor, Dr. Byron Wills. As always, the I.F.C. worked with Panhellenic to sponsor Greek Week. This year's Greek Week was highly successful and characterized typically by fierce but friendly competition, especially on the football field.

Faculty members serve as instructors, advisors, sponsors of organizations and friends. Through instruction the faculty aids the student body in learning and development. In extracurricular activities, faculty members may be seen involved in student organization activities and in many intramural sports. The administrators of the college from the President's Office to the Health Services make the college run smoothly and provide for the needs of the college campus.

President Carrier Promotes

In the first few years of his administration, President Carrier contributed a great deal to Madison College. The open door policy offers a personal touch of communication between the student and the president. In the way of bettering the college the president has reorganized the administration, expanded the student body, and improved Madison's library facilities. Finally all classes receive fair opportunity in registration with the new procedures. Football has even taken on an important role in the many intercollegiate teams associated with Godwin Hall. Besides performing a job as administrator, the president makes himself seen in the cafeteria, the snack bar, and all around the campus. As a friend who takes fair judgment in mind, the president aids student organizations in any problem they may encounter. On the more formal side of the job the president represents the college to both local and state authorities to take care of any economic and political matters.

APOLOGY TO FACULTY

I want to say that
I'm sorry from the bottom of my heart
Because our photography studio ripped us apart.
They promised that every teacher would have his picture taken
But the studio's photographer was really only fakin'.
Please accept this apology if your picture has been omitted.
Sincerely,
a formally sane
editor who is now being committed.

We acknowledge those who sent gifts that were not received in time to have the names published. Your interest and support, however are greatly appreciated.

From the Editor:

I once heard that the only sure way to fail was to try to please everyone, I hope that in this case, that proves false. The past year will mean something different to each individual, yet it is my hope that we have in some way captured something for everyone to identify with, be it a picture or a phrase in some copy. I know one of the many things I will remember will be those staff members who stuck it out for the whole year. I know it was rough at times with deadlines falling over vacations or during exams but we all did our best and I know that is all the Student Body could ask for from a staff.

Signing of the Peace Agreement
7 O'clock cease fire

With Peace at hand as this book goes to print may we, both in our personal lives and in society, remember the good times and forget the bad times except for a few fragments to help us learn from the experience.
